In view of the support which the Partido Izquierda Revolucionario (PIR) has given to other recent schemes for Italian immigration to Bolivia after the visit of PIR leader Jose Antonio Arze to Italy in June 1948, the following information is reported:

25X1A

Dr. Dino Falchi, described by the Italian Legation in La Paz as a high official in the Italian Ministry of Colonization (sic), left La Paz [REDACTED] for Salta, Argentina. Falchi is to confer with Argentine authorities in Buenos Aires in an effort to promote Italian immigration to that country. He will then return to Italy.
